

County of Fluvanna

County Administrator's Report

September 3, 2014

A great place to live, learn, work, and play!

Staff Stars & Community Efforts

- Trainer - Nancy Burrows
- NREMT (National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians)
 - All 9 eligible students passed their National exam on the first attempt!
 - 5 individuals received scores much higher than the national average! (National average 84%, Fluvanna Course 97%)
- Reflects progress in our emergency response and the continuing dedication of our all volunteer Fire Department.
- Already seen benefits of their training on several serious or potentially serious 911 calls in Fluvanna

Staff Stars & Community Efforts

- County Radon Awareness Initiative

- This Week at the Lake host, Jay Brown, will present a special television program on radon. He will be interviewing Carolynne Hagan, chemistry teacher at FCHS and Cheryl Wilkins.
- Radon kits are available for pickup at the LMOA Operations Building beginning September 5th. These test results will be added to our growing numbers through the Health Dept. to give us a better idea of radon levels in the County.
- We were able to secure an additional 200 free kits through VDH for distribution.

Staff Stars & Community Efforts

- September is National Preparedness Month
 - The Ready Campaign calls for all Americans to take the time to understand the risks in their communities to take that one additional step and practice what to do in advance of an emergency, and plan how to reconnect with family members after a disaster.
 - Watch FAN Mail and the County website for helpful information throughout the month

Market Fluvanna Campaign

What: A campaign to engage the community to celebrate Fluvanna's strengths.

When: Unveil the campaign in September 2014; Contests during the Fall months; Award ceremony late January, 2015.

Why: The Market Fluvanna Campaign is an ongoing county effort to meet BoS Strategic Initiative #3: STRENGTHEN COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS.

The goal for this campaign is to produce materials the County can use in future marketing efforts, be they for general promotions, tourism, economic development, hometown pride, community art installations, etc.

How: Two initiatives debut this fall:

- Business Promo Challenge: A video challenge, promoting business development within Fluvanna County.

Championed by the EDA and Museum in Miniature Foundation, Inc.

- “I ♥ Fluvanna” contest: An art contest, highlighting why Fluvanna is a great place to live, work, learn and play.

What's Next: It's time to re-establish Fluvanna's brand!

- Watch for the Fluvanna Review article September 11
- Submit an entry by December 2014
- Celebrate with the Community in January 2015
